Fall 2020 LEADS classes

LEADS offers a variety of classes each semester for CLAS students. If you choose to complete 10 credit hours of LEADS courses you will earn a LEADS certificate in Leadership, Innovation, Technology, and Diversity.

CLAS 2600-001, LEADS Colloquium
An introduction to LEADS that explores how leadership can be cultivated and how to use creative problem solving to move from ideas to causing action.

CLAS 3000-002, Entrepreneurship and Social Justice
An immersive interrogation of the student as a leader and change agent, social and economic value systems, competencies relating to real-world execution of strategies, and of the means by which the student might build a socially responsible identity.

CLAS 3000-003, Internship with Mecklenburg County Park and Recreation
Through a combination of classroom and experiential learning, students will gain a theoretical grounding to inform their work as they create innovative solutions to specific projects at Mecklenburg County Park and Recreation.

CLAS 3000-004, LEADS Internship with Community Partners
Through a combination of classroom and experiential learning, students will gain a theoretical grounding to inform their work as they create innovative solutions to specific projects at the organizations with which they are partnered.

CLAS 3000-006, Professional Branding
This course explores the fundamentals of building a professional brand aligning this with key identifiers of personal skills, values, and career goals that will set you up for success. Participants receive a foundation of branding theory, define their values and skills to build their brand, and put to practice strategies essential to conveying a professional brand.
